Bachelor of Arts in

Kinesiology - Physical Education Teacher Certification

Ila Faye Miller School of Nursing and Health Professions

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) – Physical Education Teacher Certification at the Ila Faye Miller School of Nursing and Health Professions at the University of the Incarnate Word is for individuals interested in promoting positive exercise, physical activity, and health and wellness behaviors in children and adults. The program of study leading to the Bachelor of Arts degree prepares students for a teaching certification with a double major. The teacher certification requires students to complete 126 credit hours for graduation. A student following this course of study will complete the UIW core, coursework in Kinesiology-Physical Education, and the Education-All Level Major (pre-professional courses and the professional development sequence). Upon successful completion of UIW Teacher Education Program requirements, Texas Education Agency certification requirements, and applicable TExES certification examinations, students are eligible to apply for state teaching certification to teach within their specialization field.

QUICK FACTS

- The concentration offers students the opportunity to earn a Kinesiology degree and Texas Teacher Certification.
- UIW Kinesiology alumni have also found employment in a variety of fields to include physical education teachers, coaches, personal trainers, professional sport management, physical therapists and professional athletes.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

The requirements for admission to the B.A. in Kinesiology - Physical Education Teacher Certification are the same as the requirements for admission to the University of the Incarnate Word.
